SUMMER MEMORIES

Summer is the time of year that takes too long to arrive and of course ends much too soon. Summer is also the time of year when students are free of stress, pressure and worries. When summer arrives, students are free to do as they wish. They don't have a care in the world - that is until September sixth when the cycle of stress and longing for summer begins once again.

"Hey-can anybody join this conga line?"

And now let's hear some songs from Elvis

In Disneyworld, two girls spend their time worshipping their cultural hero, Mickey Mouse.

The Year

Four Saugus High women doing what they do best—spending time at the beach.

Do these girls look like they're having fun?

The SHS band helps to celebrate the annual Founders Day.

An excellent adventure on a boatride to Nantucket.

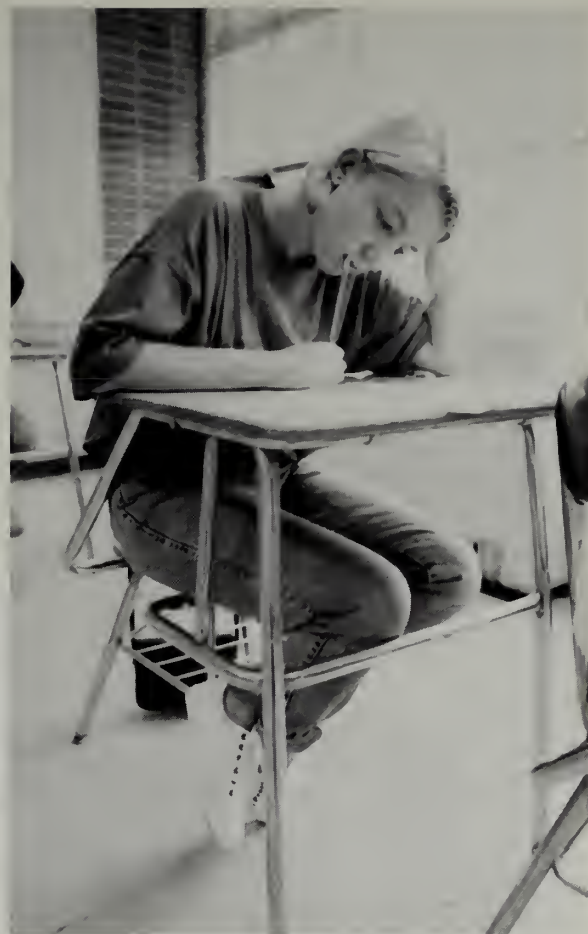

Studying hard to make the grade!

A Monet in the making.

"Did she just say what I think she said?"

A classic example of the Student Stress Syndrome.

"Help me, I think I have a brain tumor!"

CLASS
"OF" 1992

(FOUNDER'S DAY)

Another exciting Founder's Day!

Quiet please! An artist is at work.

"I can't believe I missed the target at the dunk tank!"

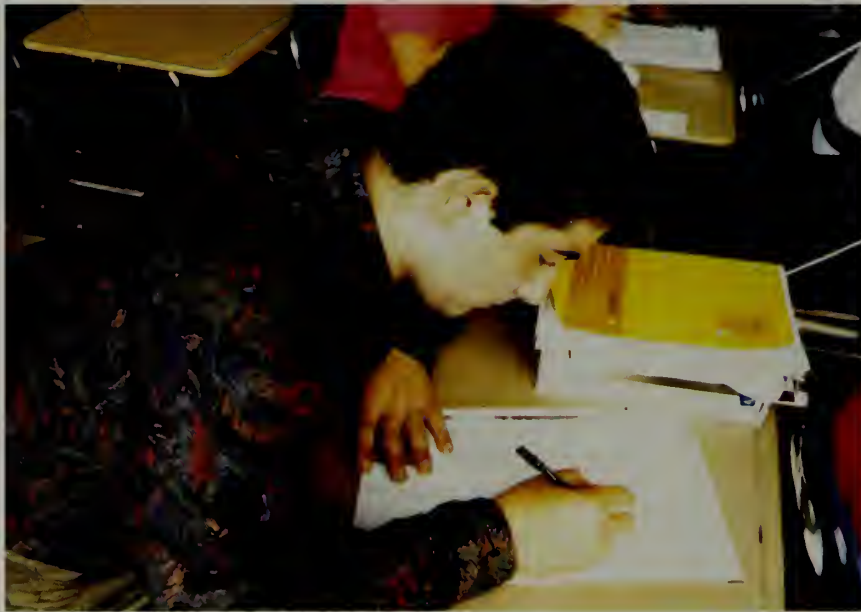

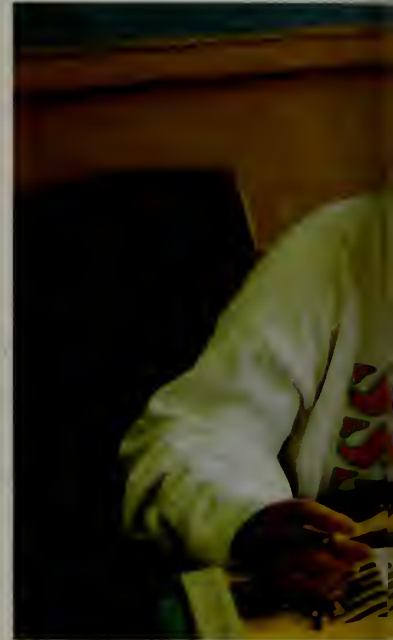

"This looks like a good buy!"

"Hey does anyone want to buy a Hyundai?"

During the past four years, our class has striven to go above and beyond the required. In order for us to reach our goals, we have had to eliminate the stereotype of the apathetic student by breaking with tradition. We have proven that we are a class filled with a passion for being. When we have broken from tradition we have done so in a graceful manner with successful results. As we enter the world as promising adults, we hope to never forget how to challenge and to always maintain our own sense of individuality and being.

Jack Waka

At this time, we would like to express our hope that Mr. Waka, a teacher who left an indelible imprint upon the minds of many students, will get well soon and be able to return to what he does best . . teaching.

. . The students of Saugus High

It's over now, the years are complete,
We're adults now so they say,
And a tear is shed on the memories,
Of what we've accomplished on the way.
We've seen our ages grow and change
As each tomorrow did start
And walking with our heads held high,
Found determination in our hearts.
Now we say hello to everything
That we have yet to see.
Smiling through tears and proud to say
"This time it's just for me."
Don't worry what the others think
Be a person of your own
And in time achievements you have reached
Will prove how much you've grown.
You'll reach the ones who held your hand,
And those who said good bye.
The ones who wiped away the tears,
And those who watched you cry.
For those who have advanced in life
And aren't here to see our pride,
We carry eternal memories
Of their love deep inside.
We'll walk proudly out into the world;
We're the best we'll ever be.
And in time a precious inner self
Is what we'll grow to see.
A precious self compiled of years
In which we've learned to live.
And now we'll take our aptitude
And show the world what we can give.
It's hard to believe 12 routine years
Are finished with a glance.
But there's a whole world waiting to be lived
And now it's good to know we can look back
On good times we have shared.
And with comfort from our memories
Face reality unafraid.
This is our farewell to Saugus High
This is our final inning.
But it's not good-bye in anything else,
My friends, it's just the beginning
When you wish upon a star,
They say your dreams come true.
God bless the wishes you have made . . .

SPIRIT WEEK

SPIRIT WEEK

Spirit Week has always been an important pre-Color Day festivity. Whether it means wearing your pajamas to school or dressing up like a hippie, no other class could celebrate Spirit Week with as much enthusiasm as the '92 Seniors.

Seniors preparing for a win at Color Day.

COLOR DAY . . . 25 YEARS OF TRADITION

"To punt or not to punt . . .", that was the question asked by the Senior Class on Color Day 1991. This Senior Class took that challenge and showed the rest of the school how to triumph on Color Day. The Underclassmen did an admirable job with their performances; however there was no doubt that the Seniors . . with their unique version of Hamlet . . would once again win Color Day. Greater than their victory was the realization that the Senior Class had that special ability to come together and to work successfully toward a common goal.

Seniors display the class spirit that has led them to victory two years in a row.

SALUGU

SPORTS

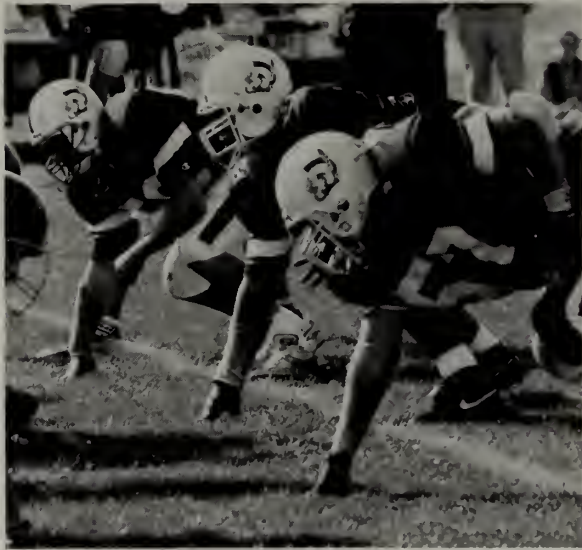

D. SOROKO

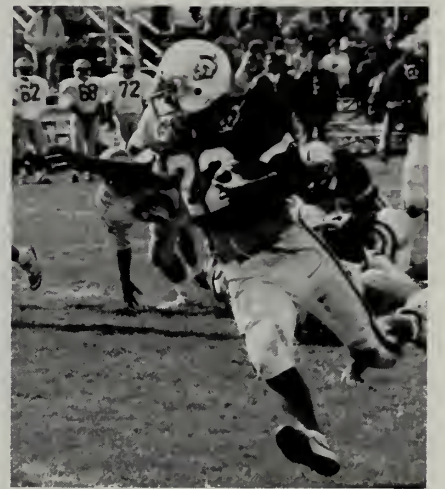

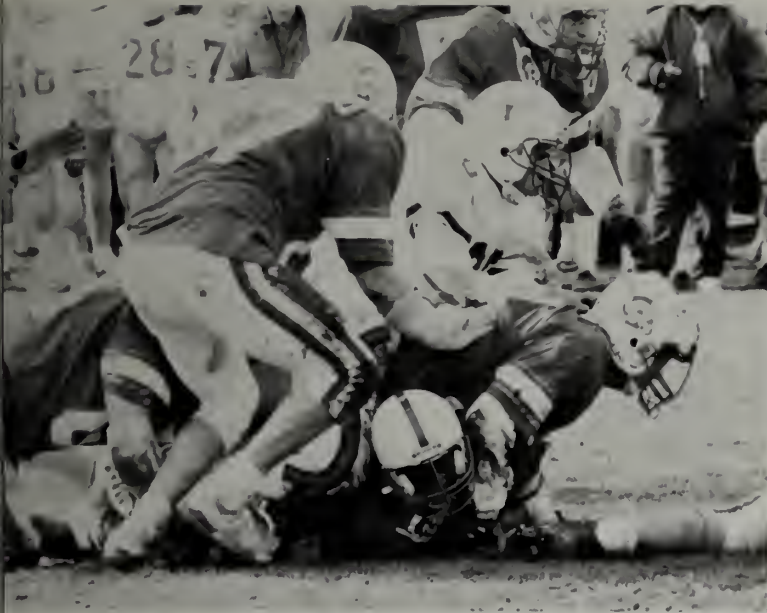

The 1991 Saugus High School Football Team had a tough season, record wise. But neither the team, nor the coaching staff, was all about the winning or losing of games. Winning was very important, and it showed in the way the team worked during practice, but the coaches also wanted the players to learn a lot about themselves, and that they did. This was a very tough season for the team. Besides having to compete against some very talented teams, some crucial injuries occurred to key players during the year. Through the good times and the bad the players and coaches stuck together. Each member of the team had a feeling of faith in each other. This was a brand new year for the coaching staff. Headed by Coach Bontempo, this staff brought a feeling of unity and friendship to the squad. The assistant coaching duties were handled by Coach Fauci, Coach Swaim, and Coach Woods. All of these coaches mean a great deal to the players who played for them. This team was a great group of kids which brought out the friendship and character that they shared. The team always worked extremely hard and always worked as a team. This hard work was paid off by wins against Swampscott and Danvers. The team should be proud of what it accomplished. Good luck to the team and the coaches in the future.

Breakin' Out Of The Past, Kickin' Into The Future

The 1991 Boy's Soccer Team gave their all, but came up short of a State Tournament Berth. They held their own in the most competitive league in years. Coach Munsen constantly pushed the team to reach their goals, making them believe that they could beat anyone. Perhaps the most closely knit of boy's teams, they had a chemistry that aided in making them an extremely hard-working team. This effort, although always noticeable, was never more present than in the memorable game against a powerful Marblehead team. This team will never forget the coach or each other; for this was a season of Victory, some defeat, but most of all . . . FUN!!

Standing (L to R): Dan Heffernan, Vinnie Manzo, Jim Leger, Anthony Renzi, Steven O'Connell, Dave Pfeil, Rob Wilker, John Pagliuca, Dave DeChellis, Joe Meola and Coach Munsen. So Ref, are those glasses or blinders? . . . because you're missin' a great game.

Yeah! . . . We don't have a clue . . . so what?

NOT JUST ANOTHER TEAM

Girls Soccer 7-6-3

During last August's triple sessions, the 1991 Girls Soccer Team had aspirations of the State Tournament, yet those dreams were dashed when many of the best players fell to illness and injury. Coach Moriello held the team together and never lost hope. He was an inspiration to the team. The opener against rival Beverly ended in a tie. In the season's finale, a 0-0 tie knocked Winthrop out of the tournament. The team grew into the best of friends on and off the field. They shared hopes and fears, victories and defeat; but stuck together all season. "This team was completely together, we are a family and look out for each other. The spirit of this team lives on."

"STICKING WITH IT!"

"Begin with a win" That quote was true with the 1991 Field Hockey Team. The girls won their first game scoring a season high 6 goals against the opposing team. The team then won one other game to leave their record at 2-8-2. Although their record may not show it, the girls were a hard working, dedicated bunch. The team was lead by Captains Kristina Robinson and Janelle Kramer along with Lisa Robitaille and Kristen Jameson. "Field Hockey gave me the chance to make lasting friendships and a chance to play the sport I love." With only four seniors leaving the team, this leaves great promise for next year.

DIFFERENT STROKES

The 1991 Saugus High GOLF team's season was an exciting one. One in which they had a 5-2-2 record and qualified for the State Tournament. The team veterans strived to be the best and were extremely impressive. A few rookies came on the scene and made their presence known. This team had a great record, but winning was not the only aspect of the competition that they looked forward to. The times spent together are not very likely to be forgotten. They will never forget the tie against Salem which spoiled the Witches' perfect record. The wins against Swampscott and Marblehead proved to be other highlights of the season. The memories that the team shared will be taken to the next season in hopes of another successful record. The seniors will take these unforgettable moments and enjoy looking back to SHS GOLF.

This picture would look so much better if there was a ball to be hit.

Here is a poem that was written by a player on the 1991 Saugus High School Girls Tennis Team. This poem was recited at the season ending banquet and best describes their season. It reads as follows:

Here is a poem
That I will forever keep
To remember our tennis team that was truly unique.

Our bus rides were the best
Speed "bumps" that are still healing
We can't forget our bus ride song
"You've Lost That Loving Feeling."

I can't forget Irene's matches and how they lasted forever,
If it wasn't for her tie breakers
We'd get home much faster.

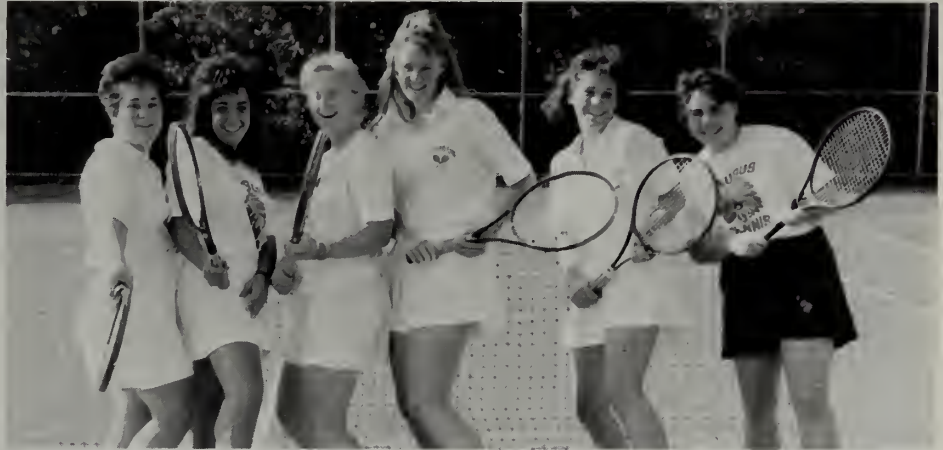

I can't forget the Tennis Strut
And how it made me laugh,
Or the time Beth asked for cookies,
Offering her cash.

Although you might think I'm a little strange
And you want me to take a seat,
I want to thank you for these two years
For it has been a special treat.

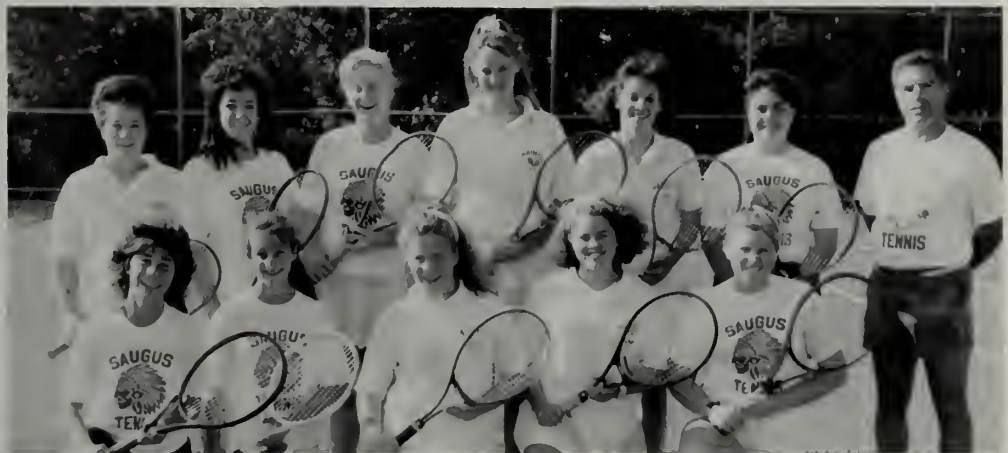

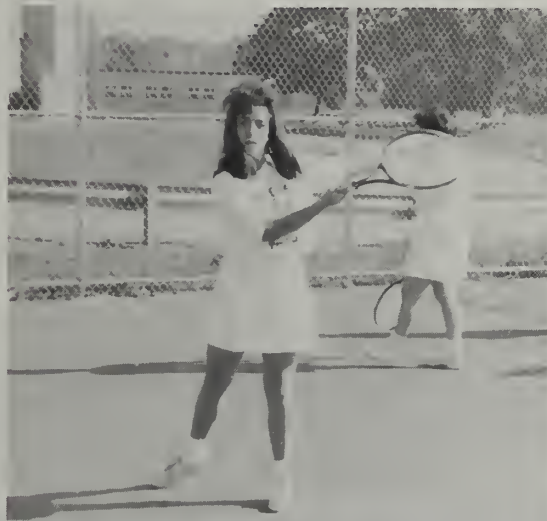

We're not like any other team
For all of us get along,
That's why I'll miss this tennis team
But I have to say so long.

I wish the rest the best of luck
And hope you all do well,
So Mr. Manoogian, do me a favor
And work them all like hell!!

The Break Point Of Tradition

You don't think we are happy about being seniors, do you?

Rebirth: Taking The First Steps

If I close my eyes, think wonderful, happy thoughts, maybe a car will come by and pick me up.

The record of this team was very deceiving. Losing only one of their meets by more than a few points, they hung together throughout. The team was almost an all rookie squad with only two veterans. Coach Babcock did his best to prepare them for the races, but injuries became a problem. The outcome of the meets, however, is not what the team will remember. This team formed a comraderie that was strong, and where 'FUN' was the one adjective that could describe all their times together. Some of these 'FUN' moments were creating new courses in the uncharted areas of Saugus, practicing in Lynn Woods, harassing opposing buses at the conference meet, and getting lost with Zollo in Winthrop. This group learned about victory and defeat, but most of all, how to accomplish anything as a team.

The curtain came down,
the lights shut off
there wasn't a sound
not even a cough.
All of the time we had put in sunk into our minds-it made us begin to make us realize the show was over,
tears hit our eyes
we found a shoulder for our head to lean on and to cry:
others carry the dream on as we say good-bye.

It was done,
it had passed;
this was the one-
the last of the last.

The summer blows on us
as we stand upon the grass
I gaze at what's around me surrounded by my class.
I begin to think of days ago when I was so young I would dress in fancy clothes pretending the day had come when I would walk with the crowd up upon the stand
Then walk away, one by one with a diploma in my hand.
Yes, graduation time-
that day of so much joy
but what was I to know of it?
I was just a boy.
So through the years I went that day put out of mind too wrapped up in present things to be thinking of that time.
So through the days I went each day I older grew
There was no way to stop it nothing I could do.
Until finally the year
the one long since awaited
And we'll leave with a tear
the place we said we hated.
All our friends surrounding the hallways are all filled excitement is within us and it begins to build so now this day has come dressed in caps and gowns.
Smiling faces maybe tears
but we have not time for frowns for this is a happy time maybe the happiest of our lives-it is the moment in our lives for which everybody strives-graduation day-it is now time leave but it is a happy time
not a time to grieve.
So back to where I am-sitting with my friends
I look around and wonder: is this the beginning or the end?
